

Self-Exclusion Form

By completing this form, you are providing The Hospice Lottery Partnership with consent to:

1. Retain your records for a period of time in line with UK GDPR and The Data Protection Act 2018 and HMRC requirements.
2. Share you details with partner charities to ensure that you are removed from all marketing data files relating to gambling products.
3. Provide partner charity shop retailers with relevant personal details and your photographic identification.

These software programs may be useful in blocking access to gambling sites from your browser: BetFilter and Gamblock.

Consequences of Self-Exclusion:

The initial self-exclusion period offered six months.

We will check your point of sale to determine whether you were signed up to the lottery via remote or non-remote methods. This is to establish the following rules pursuant to timings:

1. Face-to-face and postal sales (non-remote):
 - a. Any self-excluding individual may, on request, be extended for one or more further periods of at least six months each.
 - b. At the end of the extended period chosen by the customer, the self-exclusion remains in place for a further 6 months, unless the customer takes positive action in order to gamble again.
2. Non-face-to-face and postal sales (remote):
 - a. Any self-excluding individual may, on request, be extended for one or more further periods of at least six months each, with the option of selecting a self-exclusion period of up to at least five years.
 - b. At the end of the period chosen by the customer, self-exclusion remains in place, for a minimum of seven years, unless the individual takes positive action to gamble again.

Where you choose not to renew the self-exclusion and make a positive request to begin gambling again during the six-month or seven-year period (following the end of your initial self-exclusion), you will be given one day to cool off before being allowed access to the lottery. The positive request/contact must be made via telephone or in person.
