

Hillingdon Hospitals Charity Lottery Fundraiser

Join The Hospice Lottery and Make a Difference!

As a not-for-profit social enterprise organisation, The Hospice Lottery has been raising funds for Hillingdon Hospitals Charity since 2023. Why do we love our Fundraisers? Their fantastic work over the years has enabled us to donate over £12,307 to Hillingdon Hospitals Charity, improving the lives of people at a time when they need support the most.

"We are really delighted to be partnering with The Hospice Lottery Partnership. The funds raised will make such a difference to our patients' experience here at Hillingdon Hospital."

David Jenkins, Charity Joint Director

About the Role:

As the face of our charity partners, you'll interact with the public at Hillingdon Hospital, seeking their support in the form of lottery sign-ups. This is a pride-inducing job where you'll be making a genuine difference.

Our Fundraisers, who come from a wide range of backgrounds from teachers to CEO's are dedicated to making a difference- this role offers immense personal satisfaction.

Key Benefits:

- Self-Employed: £30,000-£38,000 (full-time equivalent) + bonuses, paid weekly
- 3-4 days per week
- Flexible working hours that suit your existing commitments
- Uncapped commission
- Training and support

Requirements:

- 5+ years' work experience; 1+ year in customer-facing role preferred
- Charisma and enthusiasm to make a difference!
- A full UK driving licence and access to your own transport

Apply Today:

Send your CV and cover letter to recruitment@hospicelottery.org.uk

Join us in making a meaningful impact in local communities.